

Inclusive Mobility in France

More than 7 mln of the French working age population have problems with their transports, which represents over 20% of global French population.

50% of them have already turn down a job proposal while 28% have already quit because of the mobility issues.

There aren't any worldwide inclusive mobility rates, for now...